ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Fruit from South Africa.
A fruit that is entirely new to Norwich is the Honeysuckle grape, imported this week by Somers Brothers from South Africa. The grape is a most tempting fruit, being of red color and a delicious flavor. The Honeysuckle grape, a black variety, is also from South Africa. The French pear, a fruit of an exceptionally fine flavor, is another rare article received this week from the fields of South Africa.

BROADWAY THEATER.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin."

Jolly, tender sentiment, lively dialogue, spectacular situations, thrilling climaxes and poetic justice—all are perfectly blended in the ancient honored "Uncle Tom's Cabin," which the renowned Stetson company will offer at the Broadway theater this afternoon and evening. Throughout this grand old stage story is illustrated the vagaries of life and the versatility of human nature. The pathetic death of Little Eva has no more covered the audience with sorrow's pall, than a stunning vaudeville number comes to restore the flooded or merely drooping soul. The Stetson company is the acknowledged leader in the production of Harriet Beecher Stowe's masterpiece. The cast is large in numbers and well distributed. The bloodthirsty and pious, the mule and scenic effects, costumes and accessories are all of the best attainable.

Katharine Goodson.

The name of Katharine Goodson, who is to be heard in Slater Memorial hall this evening, is already a household word in the American musical world. For this is her third successive season in this country. It will doubtless be of interest to know the more intimate side of the artist, who, to the majority, is known only from the platform. Miss Goodson is a creature of such ever-changing moods that it is difficult to give an account of her, except in snapshots. In her eyes there is an intensity which holds one; one minute they are piercing through to discover one's innermost thoughts; next, there is a sudden twinkle and they are brimming over with mirth. Her characteristic reticence, her intellectual brow and her mobile mouth all show of character and an artistic nature. Her figure is most graceful and willowy and reminds one of a Burne-Jones portrait, but after her eyes, her hands are her most wonderful feature. One minute they are in absolute repose, then like a flash they will bristle with vitality and expression. In her moods, Miss Goodson is like a camera, at one moment in a fever of excitement and delight, the next in perfect repose or studious thought. As regards her character, Miss Goodson is endowed with all the finest feminine qualities. Her heart is tender to a degree, and she is always ready and eager to lend a hand to anyone in need. She has an unaffectedness and modesty which she preserves, notwithstanding all the adulation she receives from all parts of the globe. She is devoted to animals, her favorite being her beautiful Persian cat, "Little Jim"—her spirit cat, as she calls him, who climbs up on the piano while she is practicing and sits there blinking, by the hour.

Tickets for the recital by Miss Goodson will be on sale at the store of Geo. A. Davis until 6 o'clock this evening, and can be obtained at the hall before the concert. Admission, including reserved seat, $1.00.

BREED THEATER.

Hon. Wm. H. Taft at Panama, Big Moving Picture.

A large and enthusiastic audience was present last evening to witness the exhibition of a very interesting moving picture entitled Taft at Panama. The president is shown at many points of interest, including arrival on train with party, inspecting proposed site of breakwater, the trip through the Culebra cut, showing the progress of the work, the method of procedure, the many obstacles, viewing the local sights, and the arrival and reception at New Orleans. At the conclusion the picture was accorded a very hearty encore.

Grandfather's Tobacco is a pretty pastoral idyll, and shows fascinating views of sheep and shepherds, coupled with picturesque scenery and quaint characters.

The Panther is a wonder. The action takes place in Bengal, and the tropical surroundings serve as an admirable setting for the weirdly exciting story. This picture includes a genuine panther hunt, during which a native is attacked, also an English lady, by the animal at large, and after much gunpowder is wasted upon him he is finally captured by a native with the aid of a net. This is a most powerful scene, as is the scene showing the panther crouching in his lair. The comedy pictures include The Safe, A Scotchman's Boy, A Life Partner, and Choosing a Life Partner.

Madam Morelle sings the plaintive heart song, Just Someone, and wins a well merited encore. The pleasant music of those who have not been able to hear her earlier in the week, she will sing for the balance of the week the last night, I Dream I Dwell in Maybelle Hall, from the Bohemian Girl. The patrons of the house are very loath to have her give up this song for a new one, so she has concluded to retain it for the remainder of the week. Mr. Cooper pleases all with his illustrated song, Trading Smiles.

Roderick Theater.

The midweek change at the Roderick brings about its usual features, one of which is the picture, Wrongfully Accused, a brilliant story dealing with a payment of a cotton containing being waylaid on his way to bank to cash a check for $10,000 with which to pay off with the robbers having duplicated his features with a perfect disguise and secured the money. When arraigned at court the bank officials of course swore he (the paymaster) had secured the money and was sentenced to a long term of imprisonment. After serving five years he was surprised one day to see the man who had wronged him cast into his cell, and recognizing each other after a short fight the villain confessed and the hero was set free. Other pictures being The Hypnotic Subject and Florida's Birth-day. The talking camophone pictures were another feature, producing marvelous effects, especially in the farce, The Coming Man, keeping the audience in screams as if on a real stage, and Grace Cameron in Little Dolly Dimples also being very clever. Mr. O'Neill renders Roguish Eyes in his usual easy way and this completes a thoroughly up to date programme.

New Fruit Invented in Florida.

One of the coming new fruits that will add to the reputation of Florida is the new fruit, Tangelo, which is a cross between the orange and the grapefruit. It is known only from the platform. Miss Goodson is a creature of such ever-changing moods that it is difficult to give an account of her, except in snapshots. Every nerve is filled with magnetism that can draw the audience in two minutes without feeling the full force of her personality. In her eyes there is an intensity which holds one; one minute they are piercing through to discover one's innermost thoughts; next, there is a sudden twinkle and they are brimming over with mirth. ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Fruit from South Africa.
A fruit that is entirely new to Norwich is the Honeysuckle grape, imported this week by Somers Brothers from South Africa. The grape is a most tempting fruit, being of red color and a delicious flavor. The Honeysuckle grape, a black variety, is also from South Africa. The French pear, a fruit of an exceptionally fine flavor, is another rare article received this week from the fields of South Africa.

BROADWAY THEATER.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin."

Jolly, tender sentiment, lively dialogue, spectacular situations, thrilling climaxes and poetic justice—all are perfectly blended in the ancient honored "Uncle Tom's Cabin," which the renowned Stetson company will offer at the Broadway theater this afternoon and evening. Throughout
